Patent Writing Workshop (Hosted on 14th of September 2022)

Kickstarting our very first Ideathon, Erudite, The Arc - Data science club of IGDTUW in collaboration with Inerve'22 -the technical fest of IGDTUW, held a workshop on Indigenization, Innovation and Patent Writing on 14th September 2022. Conducted and led by Mr. Ajay Rawat who is Project Director of Indigenization, Innovation and Startups and Ms. Sunandini Arun, Project Officer of SASTRA, both from Rashtriya Raksha University, Ministry of Home Affairs, GOI, this workshop was definitely a fun-cum-learning experience and the attendees had a lot to collect from the experience gained. This amazing session was followed by Dr. Nonita Sharma, Dr. Poonam Bansal and Ms. Kiran Malik who addressed the audience and gave insight into the ideathon and its details. A whopping cash price of Rs.10 K was announced as a reward for the winners along with an opportunity to patent their idea. The student teams were then called upon to present their amazing and innovative ideas to our guest speakers and some even managed to capture the attention of the panelists and left them awestruck. The speakers motivated the audience to come up with unique and feasible ideas which can be incorporated in the defense system. There was a demonstration to use the provided cloud-based-platform to collect ideas, organize them and make a proposal out of the same. After this fun and interactive session with the speakers the workshop was brought to a conclusion.
